

The Chairman of ALSAI Mr. Arben Shehu held a meeting with the British ambassador in Albania, Mr. Alastair King – Smith

The Chairman of ALSAI, Mr. Arben Shehu held a meeting today in the premises of the ALSAI with the British Ambassador to Albania, Mr. Alastair King – Smith. The British ambassador was also accompanied in the meeting by the political adviser, Mrs. Artela Mitrushi.

Mr. Shehu thanked the British Ambassador for the meeting and expressed his appreciation for the relations and successful cooperation between the two countries. Mr. Shehu further presented an exposition of the work of the institution, the areas of special interest, as well as emphasized the importance of inter-institutional cooperation, in order to prevent negative phenomena in time. On his part, Mr. King-Smith also expressed his thanks and appreciation for the mutual cooperation emphasizing the strengthening of democracy, especially in independent institutions, through the culture of accountability as an essential objective. The Ambassador emphasized the work of ALSAI, highlighting the quality of the audit reports, not only for their professional nature and the importance they have for specific institutions, but also that they serve as a very reliable source of information for the media and the public, providing transparency. Mr. Shehu and Mr. King - Smith expressed their full commitment to further deepen bilateral cooperation in identifying areas of common interest and strengthening capacities.